

Secondary
Educators
Exploring
Computer
Algebra
Systems

Agenda for the 1st meeting of SEECAS
Saturday, 11 January 2003
9 a.m. to 11 a.m.
Glenbrook South High School

1. Purpose

- * sharing our experiences using CAS
- * discussing recent publications related to CAS
- * sharing information that members have gathered at conferences related to CAS
- * sharing announcements on upcoming CAS-related professional development activities.

2. Frequency of Meetings

3. Days (e.g. Sat a.m. vs. After School) and Dates for Meetings

4. Location(s) for Meetings

5. Volunteers to Share at Future Meetings

6. Natalie Jakucyn's findings from the Vienna International Symposium on Information Technology in Mathematics Education, July 2002

7. Planning for USACAS Conference – 21 & 22 June 2003

8. Other

SEECAS is a Chicagoland consortium for high school teachers who are experimenting, or are interested in experimenting, with computer algebra systems (CAS) in their mathematics classrooms.